October 14, 2017

10:45 AM

Welcome

The most interesting thing happens when a marathon starts. Doesn't matter if there are 100 runners or 43,000 runners (as was the case in Chicago last weekend), as soon as the "go" happens all of them begin running in the same direction. Short, tall, dark, light, wide, narrow, fast, slow, all go the same direction and every one of them is thinking the exact same thing: Where is the 26.22 mile marker (indicated by the finish line)? There is one unequivocal and overwhelming goal: get to the end. It's not the bands, spectators, water stations, or scenery that is confused for the real reason you are there. And that is because every single individual out there knows they are in a marathon. It's only when we forget what we are in that we become confused at our goal. A reformer's voice speaks up this week. Welcome to Campion.

Our Mission

We serve and glorify God through Christ-centered worship, individual spiritual growth, youth involvement, and community interaction.
