Welcome

Do you know where the words of America the Beautiful were penned? Let me remind you the lyrics... O beautiful for spacious skies, For amber waves of grain, For purple mountain majesties, Above the fruited plain! America! America! God shed His grace on thee, And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea! The author we know was Katherine Bates (she happened to be a teacher), but where did she get the inspiration? The clue is in the original title of Bates' poem, Pikes Peak. That's right, Bates was teaching in Colorado Springs when she witnessed the view from Pikes Peak and the words flowed. What about this America? Revelation has a word for us this week. Welcome to Campion.

Our Mission
