Welcome

Are you one who can see it or one of them who can't? The "it" is those fascinating or annoying (depending on whether you see them or not) 3D images that are hidden in splashes of lines, colors, and shapes. The image is always there but sometimes all we see is the confusing mess of the colors and shapes. Our ability to see them doesn't change the reality. So it is true with the spiritual. Our awareness, or lack, of good and evil spiritual forces that surround us and our homes does not decide whether they are actually there. They are there (period). In our teaching this week, we continue our focus not on what is at the surface, but what is unseen and what often goes unrecognized in our lives. Welcome to Campion.

Our Mission
