Welcome

The end of classical antiquity was marked by ontic anxiety – the intense preoccupation with fate and death. A morbid preoccupation with suffering and death pervaded Europe in the late Middle Ages. In the midst of this, in 1517 [exactly 500 years ago] a lowly monk, emboldened by his discovery of God's unmerited love, nailed his 95 Theses to the door of the Wittenberg Castle Church and ignited what had already been stirring, the Great Reformation. Our teaching series will look at several of the influencers of this movement and what we have to do with it. Welcome to Campion.

Our Mission

We serve and glorify God through Christ-centered worship, individual spiritual growth, youth involvement, and community interaction.

- ☑ Finally, we need some volunteers to help with math, reading, grading, and helping teachers in their classrooms.
