Welcome

Years ago when Chicago Tribune columnist Marla Paul wrote column on feeling a kinship to the “Ugly Duckling” in the popular children’s book with the same title her expressed feeling was of looking to belong. It is reported that the column received seven times the usual amount of mail in response. People from all over responded when lines like “I thought I was the only one that was different” or “I too feel alone.” Even and maybe especially, the most sanguine among us would admit to times feeling the odd one out, different. This makes it all the crazier that heaven would have the idea to establish a community (church) here to work on heaven’s agenda until He can come back. Crazy idea. Or maybe it was the best idea to work with radicals. Welcome to Campion. We are all different... but that’s the good news.

Our Mission

We serve and glorify God through Christ-centered worship, individual spiritual growth, youth involvement, and community interaction.
