Welcome

Who would have known that one little visit to Bethlehem would inspire a Christmas carol that would span our earth's airwaves. The year was 1865. Philips Brooks, an Episcopal priest visited the village of Bethlehem in the district of Jerusalem. He was so moved by his visit that a few years later he wrote the poem for his church, "O Little Town of Bethlehem." How oft we are to sing the first verse and forget these moving lines in verse three: "No ear may hear His coming, but in this world of sin, where meek souls will receive Him still, The dear Christ enters in." As we open gifts this Christmas season, let us remember to open our hearts to the greatest Gift of all: Jesus Christ. Welcome to Campion.

Our Mission

We serve and glorify God through Christ-centered worship, individual spiritual growth, youth involvement, and community interaction.
