Welcome

It was on this day, February 6, in 1990 that Steve Briers of Wales recited the entire lyrics of Queen's album "A Night at the Opera" in 9 minutes & 58.44 seconds backwards! Did it matter to you? Maybe not. Should it? Probably not. But today, on this day, could it be that a meeting between you and God will be what changes you for this week, the rest of this month, or even the rest of your life. A meeting with God could do that. Welcome to His house. Welcome to Campion.

Our Mission

We serve and glorify God through Christ-centered worship,
individual spiritual growth,
youth involvement,
and
community interaction.

Satan called a worldwide meeting. The huge crowd hushed as he stepped up to speak. "We can't keep Christians from going to church. We can't keep them from reading their Bibles and knowing the truth. We can't keep them from conservative values, but we can do something else." He paused. Everyone listened.

"We can keep them from forming an intimate, abiding experience in Christ. If they gain that connection with Jesus, our power over them is broken. So let them go to church, let them have their conservative lifestyles, but steal their time so they can't gain that experience in Jesus. This is what I want you to do. Distract them from gaining hold of their Savior and maintaining a vital connection through their day!"

"How shall we do this?" shouted his angels.

"Simple. Keep them busy, busy, busy in the nonessentials of life and invent unnumbered schemes to occupy their minds," he answered.

Tempt them to spend and spend, then borrow and borrow.

"Keep them from their children. Convince the wives to go to work and the husbands to work six and seven days a week, 10 to 12 hours a day, so they can afford their lifestyles. Tell them they are doing it FOR their children. Hah! That one works well. As their families fragment, their homes won't offer an escape from the pressures of work.

"Overstimulate their minds so that they cannot hear 'the still small voice.' Entice them to play the radio or DVD player whenever they drive, to keep the TV, DVDs, MP3s, iPods, cell phones, text messages, and CDs going constantly in their homes. This will jam their minds and break that union with Christ.

"Fill their homes with magazines and newspapers. Pound their minds with news 24 hours a day. Invade their driving moments with billboards. Flood their mailboxes with junk mail, sweepstakes, catalogs, and every kind of newsletter and promotions with free products, services, and false hopes.

"Even in their recreation, let them be excessive. Have them return from their recreation exhausted, disquieted, and unprepared for the coming week. Don't let them go out in nature. Send them to amusement parks, sporting events, concerts, and movies instead.

"When they meet for spiritual fellowship, involve them in gossip and small talk so that they leave with troubled consciences and unsettled emotion. Don't let them encourage or uplift each other; keep those who are gifted encouragers especially busy and worn out.

"And above all, when they get together keep them from praying for one another. Crowd their lives with so many good causes they have no time to seek power from Christ. Soon they will be working in their own strength, sacrificing their health and family unity for the good of the cause."

It was quite a convention in the end. And the evil angels went eagerly to their assignments trying to cause Christians everywhere to get busy, busy, busy.
